

Ecumenical Dialogue: From the Global to the Local

Monsignor Donald Bolen Respondent Roger Hutchinson, Ronning Centre Distinguished Visiting Fellow

Monsignor Don Bolen will speak about his ecumenical roots in Saskatchewan and his international work in Roman Catholic dialogue with Anglicans and Methodists. Professor Hutchinson, as respondent, will comment from his expertise in social ethics and religious engagement with public issues.

Msgr. Donald Bolen is a priest of the Archdiocese of Regina who has been working in Rome at the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity. Dr Roger Hutchinson is a Professor Emeritus of Victoria University, Toronto. Roger is the September 2008 Chester Ronning Distinguished Visiting Fellow for the Chester Ronning Centre for the Study of Religion and Public Life.

Thursday, September 4, 2008, 7:30 p.m.
Atrium, The King's University College, 9125 - 50 Street, Edmonton
+ Admission is free + All are welcome + Reception to follow

Sponsored by
The Chester Ronning Centre for the Study of Religion and Public Life
Anglican Diocese of Edmonton
Catholic Archdiocese of Edmonton
The Order of St. Lazarus
The Faculty of Arts, University of Alberta

Contacts:

Jane Samson
780.492.2966 jane.samson@ualberta.ca

David Goa
780.679.1104 david.goa@ualberta.ca
www.augustana.ualberta.ca/ronning

Chester Ronning Centre for the Study of Religion and Public Life

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
AUGUSTANA CAMPUS