

A Ronning Centre Consultation Series

Raymond L. Schultz

National Lutheran Bishop (Retired)

Love and Fear in the Bible

God's love as merciful loving kindness finds expression throughout the Bible and constitutes the ministry of Jesus of Nazareth. Its antithesis is fear, the unwillingness to engage. It is possible to love enemies, but it is not possible to engage those who fear.

Monday, March 15, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.
C014, Basement of Classroom Building
Augustana Campus, 4901 - 46 Avenue, Camrose

Love and Fear in Human Relationships

The theological constructs of love and fear in the scriptures provide a background for understanding human relationships. Various popular definitions of love and insights from pastoral counselling provide material for this presentation.

Tuesday, March 16, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.
Trinity Lutheran Church
10014 - 81 Avenue, Edmonton
