

Faith, Harmony, and Dissent

David King

A Ronning Centre Forum

A person of faith who chooses to be a citizen politician has more than the usual reasons to reflect on harmony and dissent, inclusion and exclusion, political correctness and respect. For illustrative purposes, references will be made to Bill #44, considerations in “rural” Alberta, and the recent expulsion of an MLA from the PC caucus.

David King is the former Executive Director of The Public School Boards' Association of Alberta. Formerly he was a Minister of Education, Government of Alberta.

Tuesday, 9 November 2010, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.
